

SI has been shortlisted in the Best Health Plc category at the 2012 UK Stock Market Awards. The winner will be announced at a black-tie awards dinner on 29th March at the HAC in the City of London.

The UK Stock Market Awards recognise the success of UK listed businesses over the last twelve months based on a combination of share price, commercial success, balance sheet/financials and the quality of the management.

The nomination process has been achieved through votes from Shares Magazine readers, StockMarketWire and via direct mail campaigns to company directors, brokers and financial PR firms. All nominated companies will be voted on by the esteemed panel of judges chaired by Shares Magazine editor Russ Mould.

The other nominations in the Best Health Plc category are Animalcare, BTG, Deltex Medical Group and Optus.
