

Surgical Innovations (SI) has been crowned SME Manufacturer of the Year at the Yorkshire Post Excellence in Business awards last night! By winning this prestigious award, SI has been recognised for outstanding contribution to manufacturing and as one of the region's most successful businesses. The award highlights SI's commitment to investment in machinery and infrastructure as well as the hard work of the SI team. This is the second time that SI has won SME Manufacturer of the Year and the third nomination by the Yorkshire Post Excellence in Business Awards.

Graham Bowland, Chief Executive Officer, said, "We are proud of our in-house manufacturing facility which is testament to our growth strategy, as is our continued investment in innovative product development"

"It is a fantastic achievement to win this prestigious award and we are delighted to have been recognised by the region's business community."
