

INSTRUMENTS from a Yorkshire surgical device manufacturer have helped an Asiatic black bear in Vietnam to become the first in the world to have its gallbladder removed using keyhole surgery. Vet Romain Pizzi removed the bear's damaged gallbladder using specialist surgical instruments donated by Leeds-based Surgical Innovations.