

On Thursday 15 members of staff from Leeds-based Surgical Innovations ('SI'), a leading creator of innovative medical technology addressing unmet clinical needs in minimally invasive surgery, will cycle the first Stage of the Tour de France in a bid to raise money for The Sick Children's Trust.

So far 'Team SI', who will be covering approximately 135 miles over the two day charity cycle challenge, have raised over £2,000 and their story has been published in a number of outlets including Medilink, The Sick Children's Trust, Leeds Chamber of Commerce and Leeds Metropolitan University.
